

Are your financial protection arrangements up for renewal?

Now is the perfect time to review your arrangements for non-flight packages to ensure you're getting the best value for your business.

In the last six months, insurance capacity has increased for the travel industry leading to a wider range of options available to comply with the Package Travel Regulations.

We arrange both Financial Failure Insurance (FFI) and bonding for ABTA and ABTOT, so we can provide a broader view on the options available and help negotiate better terms.

Get in touch for details on a no-obligation, independent review of your current arrangements and the alternatives available.
